Biographical Information:

Bradley graduated from Fall Creek High School in 1975. He was very motivated and taught himself how to play many instruments including the French Horn, Trumpet, Piano and guitar. Bradley had a knack for languages. He studied Russian and German when he was in fifth grade from a foreign exchange professor and he learned French in High School.

He was a Cosmetologist for many years. He loved the creativity in styling hair and making his customers feel and look good. Bradley was also a night club waiter. He had a "30 person" memory where he would memorize the orders of his clients. He could even remember their orders when they returned, even weeks later. His customers liked that "customer service."

Brad passed away in 1989 at the age of 32 from HIV/AIDS.
