Biographical Information:

Garth E. Melville was born in 1926 to Louise and I. E. Melville, and lived in Fall Creek all his life. He was a graduate of Fall Creek High School, enlisted in the Navy during World War II at the age of 17, served in Africa and Italy and attained the rank of Second Class Petty Officer. After an honorable discharge at the end of the war, he attended the University of Wisconsin at Madison, and later, the University of Wisconsin at Eau Claire, and the Chippewa Valley Technical School. He was a graduate of the Elgin College of watch making and joined his father, I. E. Melville, in the family business, Melville Jewelry, in 1948. He died in 1989. Mr. Melville had a lifelong interest in Fine Arts and his children were active in music and drama during their school years. The Garth E. Melville Fine Arts Scholarship was established in 1990 to foster and encourage students in Fine Arts Studies.
